Special Processing Unit (SPU);
Attorney's Fees and Costs

David John Carney, Green & Schafle LLC, Philadelphia, PA, for Petitioner.

Mark Kim Hellie, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On June 25, 2020, Lisa Black filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of an influenza vaccine that was administered on October 16, 2018. (Petition at 1). On July 12, 2022, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner in the amount of $75,000.00. (ECF No. 36).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated July 21, 2022 (ECF No. 40), requesting a total award of $52,657.15 (representing $50,613.50 in fees and $2,043.65 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (Id. at 58). Respondent reacted to the motion on August 4, 2022, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at the Court's discretion. (ECF No. 41). Petitioner On August 10, 2022, Petitioner filed a reply stating that she would not be filing a substantive reply to Respondent's response. (ECF No. 42).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $52,657.15 (representing $50,613.50 in fees and $2,043.65 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and David J. Carney and Green & Schafle, LLC. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³
